

Douglas Wallace Architects, Designers and Project Managers win eight prestigious awards in '06

(December 2006) Douglas Wallace Architects, Designers and Project Managers have ended 2006 on a high note with the announcement that the €200m Scotch Hall development for Edward Holdings in Drogheda is the recipient of the Best In-town scheme at this year's British Council of Shopping Centres Gold Awards, bringing Douglas Wallace's awards tally to a total of eight during 2006.

On the international front, the design studio's work on the g Hotel in Galway was recognised at both the European Hotel Design Awards and the FX International Design Awards.

Closer to home, the Scotch Hall development has also received a number of accolades being highly commended at the Opus Awards and also the recipient of Best Commercial Building of the Year at the inaugural Louth County Council 'Design and Conservation Awards'.

Earlier in the year, the EYE Cinema in Galway, which opened to critical acclaim in 2005, received the Best Commercial Building Award at the RIAI Awards.

Hugh Wallace, Chief Executive of Douglas Wallace, is delighted with the awards achievement for the company this year as testament to the quality of work being produced and Douglas Wallace's commitment to visionary design.

"It is a wonderful achievement for the entire team at Douglas Wallace to win such prestigious national and international awards during 2006. It is a testament to the highly skilled professionals at Douglas Wallace and reflects the expert approach we take with our clients on a daily basis".
